California-Nevada Drought Early Warning System
Southern California Drought & Climate Outlook
September 15, 2016
Riverside Convention Center, Meeting Room 4, Riverside, CA
Wifi Password: RCCFree

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8:30</td>
<td>Registration Open</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 9:00  | Welcoming Remarks
Alicia Marrs (NIDIS) and Amanda Sheffield (SIO, CNAP)          |
| 9:05  | What is a Drought Early Warning System (DEWS)?
Alicia Marrs (NIDIS)                                               |
| 9:20  | California Climate and Drought Update
Dan McEvoy (WRCC, DRI)                                              |
| 10:00 | California Climate and Drought Outlook
Amanda Sheffield (SIO, CNAP) and Alex Tardy (NWS)                  |
| 10:40 | Break                                                                |
| 11:00 | Seasonal Southern California Santa Ana Wind Outlook
Tom Rolinski (USFS)                                                 |
| 11:20 | Interactive Exercise: Personal Experience with Drought in Southern California
Tamara Wall (WRCC, CEFA, DRI)                                       |
| 12:00 | Working Lunch (Provided)                                             |
| 1:00  | Group Discussion: Thinking about the Future of DEWS in CA-NV          |
| 2:00  | Santa Ana Wildfire Threat Index (SAWTI)
Tom Rolinski (USFS)                                                  |
| 2:20  | Exploring Tools for Quantifying and Ameliorating Meteorological Drought
Michael Kruk (NOAA)                                                  |
| 2:40  | A New Tool for Drought Monitoring in California: The Evaporative Demand Drought Index
Dan McEvoy (WRCC, DRI)                                               |
| 3:00  | Break                                                                |
| 3:15  | Stakeholder Panel: Putting the Past in the Future, Thinking About What Comes Next
Moderators: Alicia Marrs (NIDIS) & Amanda Sheffield (SIO, CNAP)    |
| 4:00  | Recap                                                                |
| 4:30  | Adjourn                                                               |